

Joel Allison, a winner of the 2005 CEO IT Achievement Award

Modern Healthcare magazine and the Healthcare Information Management System Society named Joel Allison, Baylor Health Care System president and CEO, as a winner of the 2005 CEO IT Achievement Award. The award, given annually since 2003, recognizes CEOs who are committed to bringing information technology to their organization to improve care and meet strategic objectives.

Selected from a pool of 64 nominees, Allison and two other CEOs, one from Kaiser Foundation Hospitals in Oakland, Calif. and the other from Northwestern Healthcare in Evanston Ill., will be profiled in the May 23 issue of Modern Healthcare magazine and honored at an awards ceremony in Chicago on the same date.
